Gordon's School
Economics Department

Introduction

The Economics Department currently consists of two experienced full-time teachers.

Examination Board

The Gordon's Economics Department follows the:

A Level Economics A (9EC0) – Edexcel

Examination results (2026)

Economics is a popular subject with over 100 students taking the subject in 2026-27 across Y12 and Y13.

Examination results in the Economics department are consistently high; in 2026, 40% of entries were A*-A and 81% of entries A*-B.

Many students choose to pursue economics related courses at top universities, reinforcing both the popularity of the subject as well as the aspirational nature of the department.

Extra-Curricular Activities

A range of extra-curricular activities and competitions are offered, including:

1. Gordon's Young Economist of the Year competition
2. Economics Olympiad
3. IEA Budget Challenge
4. The Monetary Policy Essay Prize (IEA).